

AYDC Membership Contribution Form

Our ultimate objective is clear: to ensure every young person in Anchorage thrives by supporting the individuals and organizations that work with youth to integrate positive youth development approaches. Together, AYDC is at the forefront of propelling strength-based, positive youth development strategies through our commitment to advocacy, resource sharing, networking, and professional learning in our community. Fulfilling this vision is only possible through your incredible support. By becoming a contributing member of AYDC, you're not just supporting a united youth-serving community; you're investing in the future of youth. Become a contributing member today and support positive transformation in our community—together, we can make a profound impact!
